CHARTER SCHOOL EDUCATOR AWARD

A 50 percent tuition award for educators in CMU-authorized schools

Central Michigan University understands that effective educators are an essential part of student success in the classroom. This exciting opportunity will connect educators in CMU-authorized charter public schools with CMU's highly-rated advanced teacher education and educational leadership programs.

Through the program, teachers and school leaders in CMU-authorized schools can receive a 50 percent tuition award that directly offsets the tuition cost of eligible graduate degree programs in education from CMU's College of Education and Human Services.

APPLYING FOR THE AWARD

- » The 15 awards are based on submission date of the CMU Global Campus online graduate degree application. The application is available at apply.cmich.edu/home/GlobalCampus. You must be admitted into the degree program prior to being accepted into the award program.
- » The employer section of the online application must be completed.
- » Email a statement that you are interested in the award, what degree program you have been accepted into, what CMU-authorized charter public school you are working at and the contact information for your school leader to Tim Odykirk at T0dykirk@TheCenterForCharters.org.
- » An Employment Verification Form will be sent to your employer after you are accepted into the program, and each year you continue in the program.
- » Admission into a degree program is determined by that department's admission policy. The Charter School Educator Award does not influence admission into the degree program.
