

Upcoming Professional Learning Opportunities through The Literacy Center at CMU!

TLC Summer Institute 2021

2 Professional Learning Opportunities

LEARN, INTERACT, AND ASK QUESTIONS
in a virtual environment!

NO CHARGE TO PARTICIPATE
in this 2-day virtual conference
and year-long book study

3rd Annual TLC Summer Institute

Join your colleagues to learn more about the science of reading

Tuesday, July 27, & Wednesday, July 28

We will begin by diving into What Works Clearinghouse Practice Guides. Practice guides summarize research, experience, and expert opinions on educational topics and are designed to help teachers address the challenges of applying research findings to their own classrooms. Learn from expert presenters in a convenient virtual format.

Three paths will be available:

1. Foundational Skills to Support Reading for Understanding in Kindergarten Through 3rd Grade
2. Improving Reading Comprehension in Kindergarten Through 3rd Grade
3. Improving Adolescent Literacy: Effective Classroom and Intervention Practices (designed for grade 4 and up).

Professional Book Study

Extend your learning through the next academic year

2021-2022 Academic Year

Join TLC for a book study of Dr. David Kilpatrick's Essentials of Assessing, Preventing, and Overcoming Reading Difficulties, which was introduced at the 2020 Institute. Dave is Associate Professor of Psychology for the State University of New York, College at Cortland and a New York State certified school psychologist with 28 years of experience. We will meet monthly from September to April in a virtual, interactive format. You may attend if you did not attend the 2nd TLC Summer Institute. Materials provided.

Participants will receive materials, a certificate of completion, and $150 stipend (Institute only). In addition, State Continuing Education Clock Hours (SCECHs) will be available.
