

FUTURE WHEEL ACTIVITY

Instructions:

1. Identify a change, question, event, or trend and list it in the center circle.
2. In the first order consequence circles, list the most immediate consequences, implications, or opportunities.
3. Shift focus from the key concept of the center circle and consider the first order consequence. In the second order circles, consider potential results from the first order consequences.
4. Continue process until the sequence of implications for the key topic is evident.
