MEANINGFUL RELATIONSHIPS

"No significant learning occurs without a significant relationship."

—James Comer

"Students don't care how much you know, until they know how much you care"

— John C. Maxwell

"Kids don't learn from people they don't like."

— Rita Pierson

STUDENT EMPOWERMENT

- Create an Us vs. Them "friendly" school-wide mentality that emphasizes love, respect and concern for their classmates, teachers and school staff.
- Teambuilding Activities within the classroom.
- Experiential Education
- Ubuntu and creating a school environment that highlights our student's heritage.
- Teachers / Students 1:1

TEACHER GROWTH

1. Navigate key components within the NWEA website. What's most important as it relates to what the school is trying to accomplish? How can we use this information to drive instruction?
2. Differentiated Instruction – Tailoring instruction to meet diverse student needs and abilities through workshop and center-based learning opportunities
3. Coaching and feedback cycles
4. Professional development opportunities
3. Identify Reward School Report Card. What are we being evaluated on?

ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS

- Who are our composite district schools in comparison?
- How do we find the state average percentages?
- What components do we need to implement school-wide?
- MAKE SURE IT TRANSLATES!
