Fired Up for Teaching & Learning!

A One Day, On-Campus Event

The Department of Teacher and Special Education is excited to host a day of professional learning for mentor teachers—our way of saying thank you for everything you do to support the next generation of educators! Join us in person at CMU's Mount Pleasant campus, hosted by the College of Education and Human Services. A variety of sessions will explore topics ranging from early childhood to adolescence, led by CMU Teacher and Special Education faculty, doctoral candidates from the Doctor of Educational Technology program, and invited guest speakers.

Four feature tracks for the conference are (1) Technology: Skills & Ethics, (2) High-Leverage/Core Teaching Practices, (3) Content Instructional Strategies (Literacy/Reading, Social Studies, Math, & Science), & (4) Classroom Management and the Whole Child (SEL, Inclusion, & Differentiation).

Highlights include:

- Popular topics in Teaching & Learning such as Creativity in Learning, Artificial Intelligence (AI), and Universal Design for Learning (UDL)
- Opportunities to learn with and from CMU's nationally recognized faculty and guest speakers
- Complimentary lunch, snacks, and refreshments
- Earn up to 8 hours of FREE SCECHs or MiRegistry credit!
